On the 16th ultimo what might have been another rict took place in Chinkiang. Some native pilgrims were passing the concession when one of them stooned down and nicked up a nail in front of a house, A Chinese policeman seeing the act immediately arrested the pilgrim and charged him with the theft of the nail. On the way to the police station the pilgrims gathered to see the arrest. At last, the crowd reached the number of one to two thousand people. Shouts, cries, curses, and imprecations were showered upon the policeman as well as broken tiles and stones. The British Consul and the Chinese deputy of Foreign Affairs, at once sent guards to quell and disperse the mob. The mil-picking pilgrim was forthwith released from the station. The crowd became quiet and turned away. It is time for the Municipal Comer of Chinkians to instruct the police in their service in the proper duties that become constable, if they are to arold disturbances and trouble in future -Sainpas.
